Selection Committee Members and Staff of the Metropolitan Council,

President of the Senate

My name is Lynnea Atlas-Ingebretson and I am a proud resident of District 6. I was raised in North Minneapolis and attended Minneapolis Public Schools. Growing up I spent most of my days at Theodore Wirth Regional Park where while in middle school a willow tree over Basset Creek was my best friend. Today, I am a homeowner in Golden Valley. It is my honor to apply for a seat on the Metropolitan Council, so I can contribute to its vital mission for current and future residents of the metropolitan region.

I believe that the Metropolitan Council is essential as its work over the decades has created an amazing region in which we all benefit from. My time working at the City of Minneapolis taught me the most important work is often unknown by many and that doing what is best isn't about getting credit, but rather it's about stewardship. Perhaps the work of the Met Council is at times underappreciated, but it is essential stewardship. Wastewater systems management and planning, transportation that is sustainable and co-operative, equitable development and housing, and maintaining a world-class urban/suburban regional park system for all is critical to our future and continued success.

Since its inception, the Met Council has taken on making meaningful and significant strides to eliminate and mitigate racial and economic disparities and inequities. I am a committed candidate who, if selected, is determined to continue to meaningfully accelerate the equity work that is currently happening. I am willing to serve as a steward of our regional natural resources, a proponent of opportunities for planful use of water resources and management, and champion for equitable access and opportunities in transportation and development.

I know how to strategically listen, learn, and ideate to shift and improve longstanding organizational cultures. I am solution-oriented and use a critical and equity-minded lens to examine issues. I have extensive and successful experience deploying capacity building programs and regional initiatives at the local, regional and state levels. I like studying an issue, learning from available research, engaging the public, and using subject matter experts to find practical and inventive solutions and opportunities.

Highlighted here are a few roles I have had with direct connection to the work of the Met Council. I have served as Inaugural Chair of the Parks and Trails Legacy Fund Advisory Committee and Manager of the Richardson Nature Center, Education and Engagement Manager for the Non-motorized Transportation Pilot Project - launching the efforts for Minneapolis to become the number one bike City in the nation, Director of Programs for the Charities Review Council - creating the first national nonprofit standards through a state and regional engagement effort for diversity, equity, and inclusion. I have extensive experience in public engagement refined in my role as Director of Family and Partnerships for Minneapolis Public Schools. Currently I have a private consulting practice with Imagine Deliver and serve as Chief of Staff for Juxtaposition Arts a creative career youth social enterprise centered in North Minneapolis.

Harriet Tubman said "every great dream begins with a dreamer. Always remember, you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world." I hope for the opportunity to contribute my strengths and passion to this vital work, thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,

Lynnea Atlas-Ingebretson
