Madelyn: My background I started by spending 2 years at the University of Minnesota for Political Science. Then I went to Dunwoody for 1 year and 4 years of night school serving an apprenticeship with the pipefitters local 539. I have worked commercial and service. In 1997 I started with the City of Minneapolis as a Mechanical Inspector. Starting in 1999 I was given the downtown district. I inspect High pressure steam systems, chilled water, hot water, natural gas, oil. Refrigeration. Projects that I have dealt with are Target Field, Minneapolis Central Library, The Guthrie Theatre, Target Plaza Towers-North-South, US Bank Stadium. Plus a lot of Condo and apartment projects in the city. In April of 2015 was made Lead Mechanical Inspector for the City of Minneapolis were I give technical advice to contractors and the other mechanical inspectors. I have served on several code committee's thru the years and I have served on the MAPMO Board.
