To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to request consideration for a Master Electrician position on the Board of Electricity.

Having worked in the electrical industry for 37 years, I have held roles as a master electrician, project manager, contractor, and owner. This broad experience has given me a great understanding of the opportunities and challenges our industry faces. I feel I have much to offer and would like to be of service in this Master Electrician position on the Board of Electricity.

My background has no legal or financial concerns and, I would be happy to provide references upon request.

Please don't hesitate to contact me with any additional questions you may have. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Duane J. Hendricks,
 President & CEO

Building on Promises Kept

DUANE HENDRICKS

President & CEO

From a young age, Duane Hendricks had a passion for construction and a desire to be an electrician. Born and raised in Motley, Minn., he participated in Agriculture Electrification projects through FFA and graduated with honors. A graduate of Minneapolis Community and Technical College, he now has more than 37 years of electrical experience. He has held hands-on roles as an apprentice electrician, licensed journeyman, master electrician, contractor, and owner. In his current role as President & CEO at Egan Company, Duane believes his most important responsibility is maintaining the highest level of integrity and service to Egan's customers and employees. As the Master of Record for Egan Company in many states, he holds overall responsibility to ensure all electrical work performed meets the NEC, local, and national building codes. Duane and his wife Linda have two children and are the proud grandparents of three. When away from the office, he enjoys being outdoors with his grandsons, motorcycling, and water sports at his cabin.
