Subd. 10. [FAMILY COLLABORATIVES.] For family collaboratives:

$6,000,000	1996
$6,000,000	1997

Of the appropriation, $150,000 each year is for grants targeted to assist in providing collaborative children's library service programs. To be eligible, a family collaborative grant recipient must collaborate with at least one public library and one children's or family organization. The public library must involve the regional public library system and multitype library system to which it belongs in the planning and provide for an evaluation of the program.

No more than 2.5 percent of the appropriation is available to the state to administer and evaluate the grant program.

Any balance in the first year does not cancel but is available in the second year. These sums are available until June 30, 1998."

Ms Ranum then moved to amend S.F. No. 1884 as follows:

"Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 121.8355, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] (a) In order to qualify as a family services collaborative, a minimum of one school district, one county, and one public health entity must agree in writing to provide coordinated family services and commit resources to an integrated fund. Collaboratives are expected to have broad community representation, which may include other local providers, including additional school districts, counties, and public health entities, other municipalities, public libraries, existing culturally specific community organizations, tribal entities, local health organizations, private and nonprofit service providers, child care providers, local foundations, community-based service groups, businesses, local transit authorities or other transportation providers, community action agencies under section 268.53, senior citizen volunteer organizations, parent organizations, parents, and sectarian organizations that provide nonsectarian services.

(b) Community-based collaboratives composed of representatives of schools, local businesses, local units of government, parents, students, clergy, health and social services providers, youth service organizations, and existing culturally specific community organizations may plan and develop services for children and youth. A community-based collaborative must agree to collaborate with county, school district, and public health entities. Their services may include opportunities for children or youth to improve child health and development, reduce barriers to adequate school performance, improve family functioning, provide community service, enhance self esteem, and develop general employment skills.

(c) Members of the governing bodies of political subdivisions involved in the establishment of a family services collaborative shall select representatives of the nongovernmental entities listed in paragraph (a) to serve on a joint board established under section 471.59, subdivision 11. The governing body members shall determine the number of representatives of the nongovernmental entities.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 121.8355, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. Page 15, after line 23, insert:

"Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1995 Supplement, section 124.248, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OTHER AID, GRANTS, REVENUE.] (a) A charter school is eligible to receive other aids, grants, and revenue according to chapters 120 to 129, as though it were a school district except that, notwithstanding section 124.195, subdivision 3, the payments shall be of an equal amount on each of the 23 payment dates unless a charter school is in its first year of operation in which case it shall receive on its first payment date 15 percent of its cumulative amount guaranteed for the year and 22 payments of an equal amount thereafter the sum of which shall be 85 percent of the cumulative amount guaranteed. However, it may not receive aid, a grant, or revenue if a levy is required to obtain the money, except as otherwise provided in this section. Federal aid received by the state must be paid to the school, if it qualifies for the aid as though it were a school district.

~~(b) Any revenue received from any source, other than revenue that is specifically allowed for operational, maintenance, capital facilities revenue under paragraph (c), and capital expenditure equipment costs under this section, may be used only for the planning and operational start-up costs of a charter school. Any unexpended revenue from any source under this paragraph must be returned to that revenue source or conveyed to the sponsoring school district, at the discretion of the revenue source.~~

~~(e) A charter school may receive money from any source for operational or capital facilities needs. Any unexpended capital facilities revenue must be reserved and shall be expended only for future capital facilities purposes."~~

Mr. Stevens moved to amend S.F. No. 1884 as follows:

"Sec. 40. [UNFUNDED SCHOOL MANDATE PROHIBITION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] As used in this section, "mandate" means those programs and procedures required by state law or rule to be financed, delivered, or performed by school districts. Mandate includes federal programs to the extent the state elects to impose them as a mandate on school districts but does not include federal mandates for which there is no substantial state discretion.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING OF THE COST OF MANDATES.] If the fiscal note prepared by the commissioner of finance under Minnesota Statutes, section 3.982, indicates that a new or expanded mandate in a bill introduced in the legislature will impose a statewide cost on school districts in excess of $500,000, the school districts are not required to implement the mandate unless the legislature, by appropriation enacted before the mandate is required to be implemented, provides reimbursement to the school districts for the costs incurred."

"Sec. 12. [COMPUTER HARDWARE AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS HARDWARE GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A program is established to promote public and private partnership with school districts for the purchase of computer hardware, network hardware, and telecommunications hardware.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] The commissioner of the department of children, families, and learning shall establish guidelines and an application process to distribute funds to school districts that obtain matching funds from either a public or private source for the purchase of new computer, network, or telecommunications hardware. Hardware purchased under this program must be used for support of classroom instruction, the implementation of computer networks, or support of telecommunications connectivity. Funding for this program will be provided to school districts on the basis of a per pupil formula. School districts shall provide 40 percent of the purchase costs of equipment through local or private matching funds and the department shall provide 60 percent of the purchase costs through the per pupil formula. The commissioner shall establish a process to distribute any unallocated funds."

The motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Mondale moved to amend S.F. No. 2702 as follows:

"Sec. 5. [REPORT ON IMPACT OF STILLWATER BRIDGE.]

By January 15, 1997, the metropolitan council shall submit a report to the legislature concerning the construction of the bridge across the St. Croix river in or near the city of Stillwater. The report must include:

(1) an analysis of the impact of the bridge on the preferred future urban development pattern for the metropolitan area;

(2) a discussion of the relationship of the construction of the bridge to each of the five goals of the metropolitan council's regional blueprint: economic growth and job creation, reinvestment in distressed areas, strengthened sense of community, preservation of the natural environment, and sound regional infrastructure investments; and

(3) an analysis of economic development impacts for the state of Wisconsin.

Sec. 6. [PROHIBITION OF CONTRACTS CONCERNING STILLWATER BRIDGE.]

The commissioner of transportation may not enter into an equitable agreement with authorities of the state of Wisconsin regarding the purchase, construction, maintenance, repair, or operation of the Stillwater bridge or for a division of costs and responsibilities with respect to the bridge before June 1, 1997. Neither the commissioner of transportation, the commissioner of administration, nor the attorney general may execute or approve a contract related to the construction of the bridge before June 1, 1997."

Amend the title accordingly
