"Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 169.022, is amended to read:

169.022 UNIFORM APPLICATION.

The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable and uniform throughout this state and in all political subdivisions and municipalities therein, and no local authority shall enact or enforce any rule or regulation in conflict with the provisions of this chapter unless expressly authorized herein. Local authorities may adopt traffic regulations which are not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter; provided, that when any local ordinance regulating traffic covers the same subject for which a penalty is provided for in this chapter, then the penalty provided for violation of said local ordinance shall be identical with the penalty provided for in this chapter for the same offense, except as otherwise provided in a traffic safety educational diversion pilot program.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective June 1, 2014."

"Sec. 17. [169.9991] TRAFFIC SAFETY EDUCATIONAL DIVERSION PILOT PROGRAMS.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) For the purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given.

(b) "Local unit of government" means a county, a home rule charter or statutory city, or a town.

(c) "Diversion program," "traffic safety educational diversion pilot program," or "program" means the traffic safety educational diversion pilot program formed and recognized by local government resolution after June 1, 2014, and authorized by this section.

Subd. 2. Programs authorized. (a) A local unit of government that operated a diversion program anytime before May 1, 2014, may, on or after June 1, 2014, authorize a program by resolution, establish a fee for participation, and operate the program for holders of class D drivers' licenses who commit one of the following offenses:

(1) failure to obey traffic-control signals in violation of section 169.06;

(2) violating section 169.14, where the violation consists of a speed under 15 miles per hour in excess of the lawful speed limit, but excluding a speed limit violation described in section 171.12, subdivision 6;

(3) passing on the right in violation of section 169.18, subdivision 4;

(4) following a vehicle too closely in violation of section 169.18, subdivision 8;

(5) passing a parked emergency vehicle in violation of section 169.18, subdivision 11;

(6) failing to yield right-of-way in violation of section 169.20, subdivision 1;

(7) failing to obey a stop sign in violation of section 169.20, subdivision 3;

(8) failing to obey a stop line in violation of section 169.30;

(9) operating a vehicle that is in violation of sections 169.46 to 169.68 and 169.69 to 169.75; and

(10) using a wireless communications device in violation of section 169.475.

(b) When issuing a citation to a vehicle operator for an offense described in paragraph (a), a peace officer employed by a local unit of government that has complied with paragraph (a) may also provide written information about the governmental unit's diversion program, including contact information, eligibility, participation fee, duration, content, and benefits. The peace officer shall use best efforts to avoid referring an ineligible person to the program.

(c) A person who has been referred to a diversion program under paragraph (b) may respond to the citation as otherwise provided for in law or proceed under this section. If the person chooses to proceed under this section, the person shall enroll in and successfully complete the program. A person who is not eligible for the program or otherwise fails to successfully complete it shall either pay the citation or contest it as otherwise provided for in law.

Subd. 3. Program content. The educational component of a diversion program must consist of a driver's safety training program designed:

(1) to educate persons who have committed minor traffic violations concerning compliance with traffic laws; and

(2) to deter future violations.

The duration of the program must be a minimum of one hour, at least one-half of which must include a live in-person on-site presentation by a trained law enforcement officer. Participants must be physically present for all required program classes to successfully complete the program.

Subd. 4. Surcharge. The surcharge imposed under section 357.021, subdivision 6, does not apply to a participant in a diversion program.

Subd. 5. Contracting with third parties. Notwithstanding any other law or ordinance to the contrary, a local unit of government that operates a diversion program under this section may contract with a third party to administer the program. The contract must require the third party to comply with and operate the program in accordance with the requirements of this section.

Subd. 6. Officer's authority. (a) The authority to refer a person to a diversion program under this section is reserved exclusively to licensed peace officers. An officer may not be required by ordinance or otherwise to make a referral.

(b) A peace officer is prohibited from referring a person to the program when the driving record of the person includes more than two violations under this section in a 12-month period, beginning on the date of the first violation.

Subd. 7. Records. (a) A report, in a form specified by the commissioner of public safety, of licensed drivers who have enrolled in, participated in, or successfully completed a diversion program must be promptly transmitted to the commissioner of public safety, who shall retain the records and communicate them, annually and on request to similar programs in the state for the purpose of determining eligibility. The program administrator of each diversion program shall be responsible for determining successful completion.

(b) Before beginning a diversion program, each participant shall sign an attestation declaring that the participant has not participated in a traffic offense educational diversion program in this state within the previous 36 months. It is a misdemeanor to make a false statement in the attestation. The program administrator shall retain the attestation for a minimum of 36 months and make signed attestation forms available, on request, to similar programs in the state for the purpose of determining eligibility.

(c) After completing a diversion program, each participant shall complete and submit to the program administrator, a form designed by the commissioner of public safety to elicit feedback concerning the participant's perception of the program's educational content, its germaneness to the participant's specific violation, and outcomes achieved through program participation. The participant shall identify on the form the nature of the violation that qualified the participant for the program, previous moving violations, and previous participation in similar courses. The program administrator shall submit the completed forms to the commissioner of public safety.

(d) By January 15, 2015, the commissioner of public safety shall report to the chairs and ranking minority members of the senate and house of representatives committees and divisions with jurisdiction over transportation policy and budget, a compilation of records submitted to the commissioner under paragraphs (a) and (c), along with recommendations for legislation to improve and continue traffic diversion programs.

Subd. 8. Driving records. (a) The commissioner of public safety may not record the underlying violation on the driving record of an eligible person who successfully completes a diversion program or use it as grounds for revocation or suspension of the person's driver's license.

(b) A violation under this section must be recorded in the comprehensive incident-based reporting system under section 299C.40, for the limited purpose of ensuring compliance with subdivision 7, paragraph (b).

Subd. 9. Commercial drivers' licenses and commercial vehicles; eligibility for participation. A person who holds a commercial driver's license, or is the driver of a commercial vehicle in which an offense was committed, is not eligible for a diversion program under this section if participation would constitute noncompliance with federal law or regulation and subject the state to possible loss of federal funds.

Subd. 10. Local preemption. Diversion programs under this section are limited exclusively to those offenses listed in subdivision 2, paragraph (a).

Subd. 11. Data. Data on individuals referred to or enrolled in a diversion program under this section are private data on individuals as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective June 1, 2014, and expires on June 30, 2015."

"Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 169.222, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. Riding rules. (a) Every person operating a bicycle upon a roadway with a posted speed limit of 30 miles per hour or less shall ride in the right-hand lane when available for traffic, except under any of the following situations:

(1) when overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction;

(2) when preparing for a left turn at an intersection or into a private road or driveway;

(3) when reasonably necessary to avoid conditions, including fixed or moving objects, vehicles, pedestrians, animals, surface hazards, narrow width lanes, or other conditions that in the judgment of the cyclist make it unsafe to continue in the right-hand lane; or

(4) when operating on the shoulder of a roadway or in a bicycle lane.

(b) When operating a bicycle upon a roadway with a posted speed limit of 30 miles per hour or less, upon approaching an intersection where right turns are permitted and there is a dedicated right-turn lane, a bicyclist may ride on the left-hand portion of the dedicated right-turn lane even if the bicyclist does not subsequently turn right and does not intend to turn right."

Subd. 2. Inspection by state trooper. (a) The commissioner of public safety is directed to accelerate spot-check inspections for unsafe motor vehicles and motor vehicle equipment. Such inspections shall be conducted by the personnel of the State Patrol who shall give the operator of a commercial motor vehicle a signed and dated document as evidence of the inspection.

(b) However, personnel of the State Patrol may not conduct another spot inspection of a commercial motor vehicle if (1) the operator of the vehicle can show evidence of an inspection, which is free of critical defects, conducted in Minnesota according to this section or section 169.781 within the previous 90 days and (2) a state trooper does not have probable cause to believe the vehicle or its equipment is unsafe or that the operator has engaged in illegal activity. In addition, if the operator shows the state trooper evidence that the commercial motor vehicle has been inspected within the previous 90 days, but the officer has probable cause to believe the vehicle or its equipment is unsafe or to suspect illegal activity, then the vehicle may be inspected to confirm the existence or absence of an unsafe condition or of the suspected illegal activity.

(c) A vehicle stopped under this section and determined to be a covered farm vehicle as defined in Code of Federal Regulations, title 49, section 390.5, and not carrying hazardous materials of a type or quantity that requires the vehicle to be placarded in accordance with Code of Federal Regulations, title 49, section 172.504, is exempt from further inspection under this section. If probable cause exists to believe the vehicle or its equipment is unsafe or illegal activity is suspected, enforcement action may be initiated."

Senator Tomassoni moved to amend H.F. No. 2092 as follows:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 168.12, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. Firefighters; special plates, rules. (a) The commissioner shall issue special plates, or a single license plate in the case of a motorcycle plate, to any applicant who:

(1) is a member of a fire department receiving state aid under chapter 69, has a letter from the fire chief, and is an owner of a passenger automobile as defined in section 168.002, subdivision 24, a one-ton pickup truck as defined in section 168.002, subdivision 21b, or a motorcycle as defined in section 168.002, subdivision 19;

(2) pays a fee of $10 and any other fees required by this chapter;

(3) pays the registration tax required by this chapter for the motor vehicle; and

(4) complies with this chapter and rules governing the registration of motor vehicles and licensing of drivers.

(b) In lieu of the identification required under subdivision 1, the special plates must bear an emblem of a Maltese Cross together with any numbers or characters prescribed by the commissioner.

(c) Special plates issued under this subdivision may only be used during the period that the owner of the motor vehicle is a member of a fire department as specified in this subdivision. When the individual to whom the special plates were issued is no longer a member of a fire department or when the motor vehicle ownership is transferred, the owner shall remove the special plates from the motor vehicle. If the commissioner receives written notification that an individual is no longer qualified for these special plates, the commissioner shall invalidate the plates and notify the individual of this action. The individual may retain the plate only upon demonstrating compliance with the qualifications of this subdivision. Upon removal or invalidation of the special plates; or special motorcycle plate, either the owner or purchaser of the motor vehicle shall obtain regular plates or, a regular motorcycle plate, or special plates for the proper registration classification for the motor vehicle.

(d) A special motorcycle license plate issued under this subdivision must be the same size as a standard motorcycle license plate.

(e) Upon payment of a fee of $5, plates issued under this subdivision for a passenger automobile or truck may be transferred to another passenger automobile or truck owned or jointly owned by the person to whom the plates were issued. On payment of a fee of $5, a plate issued under this subdivision for a motorcycle may be transferred to another motorcycle owned or jointly owned by the person to whom the plate was issued.

(f) The commissioner may adopt rules under the Administrative Procedure Act, sections 14.001 to 14.69, to govern the issuance and use of the special plates authorized in this subdivision.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 168.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2g. Retired firefighters; special plates. (a) The commissioner shall issue special retired firefighters plates to an applicant who:

(1) is a retired member of a fire department defined in section 299N.01, subdivision 2, has a letter from the fire chief and administrative officer of the local government unit affirming that the applicant is a retired firefighter who served ten or more years and separated in good standing, and is a registered owner of a passenger automobile, a one-ton pickup truck, a recreational vehicle, or a motorcycle;

(2) pays a fee of $10 for each set of license plates applied for along with any other fees required by this chapter; and

(3) complies with this chapter and rules governing registration of motor vehicles and licensing of drivers.

(b) The commissioner shall design the special plate emblem so that it is distinguishable from the emblem on firefighter special plates issued under subdivision 2b.

(c) On payment of a transfer fee of $5, plates issued under this subdivision may be transferred to another passenger automobile, one-ton pickup truck, recreational vehicle, or motorcycle registered to the individual to whom the special plates were issued.

(d) Fees collected under this subdivision must be credited to the vehicle services operating account in the special revenue fund.

(e) This subdivision is exempt from section 168.1293."
