

Joint Senate and House Publications

Most of the following information and materials are available on the Internet at www.leg.mn

Legislative Directory (Red Book) - Available in May of odd-numbered years. In addition to member and committee information, it contains the Senate and House Permanent Rules; statutory and constitutional provisions relating to the legislature; state agency, constitutional officer and federal information.

Members Directory (Green Book) - Available in February of odd-numbered years. This publication contains member biographies, room and phone numbers, committee assignments, as well as federal information.

Election Directory - Available immediately following an election. It contains photo and biographical information. (Does not include committee assignments, or Capitol or State Office Building room and phone numbers for newly elected members.)

Seating Chart - Shows where each House or Senate member's seat is located within their respective chamber.

Member List - Lists office addresses and phone numbers for Legislators

House Publications

(Available in Room 175 State Office Building or at www.house.mn)

Maps: Legislative Districts, Congressional Districts

Session Weekly - Weekly newsmagazine.

New Laws - A summary of newly enacted legislation, this online-only publication is available in August of each year.

Capitol Steps - How six bills became law and a step by step explanation of how a bill becomes a law.

Pronunciation Guide - To members' names.

Staff List

House of Representatives Roster - Names, addresses and phone numbers.

Committee Information - Membership and meeting times and locations.

Minnesota State Government Series - (Appropriate for various grade levels)

No. 1	State Profile	No. 5	State Legislative info
No. 2	State Symbols	No. 6	State Law Process
No. 3	State Counties	No. 7	U.S. Congress
No. 4	State Lawmakers	No. 8	The Three Branches

Minnesota State and Federal Offices - Contact information.

Committee Schedule - Daily schedules and agendas for all House Committee meetings.

Legislative Information is Plentiful, Accessible and Free - Electronic resources that provide information about the Legislature.

Welcome To The House - Guide to appearing before a committee hearing.

Come To The Capitol - A practical guide for a Capitol visit

Restoration - (Renovation of the House Chamber)

Senate Publications

(Available in Room 231 Capitol or at www.senate.mn)

Guide to the Minnesota Senate - A general guide.

Inside the Senate - Similar to "Guide to the Minnesota Senate" in question and answer form. One hundred and twelve basic to complex questions.

Committee Information - Membership, meeting times and locations.

Pronunciation Guide - To members' names.

A Guide for Kids - (Second to Sixth Grades)

A Puzzle Book for Kids - (Second to Sixth Grades)

Guide to Minnesota Government Offices - State and federal information sheet.

Senate Services Bookmark

Please note: Senate bills, journals and floor session documents are available in the Senate Office, 231 Capitol. House bills, journals and floor session documents are available from the Office of the Chief Clerk of the House, Room 211 Capitol. Chapters, or bills sent to the governor, are available from both offices. All bills, journals and chapters are available online.

This and all other documents listed here can be made available in alternative formats. To make a request, or if you have further questions, please call:

House Information (voice) at (651) 296-2146 or toll free 1-800-657-3550 or (TTY) at (651) 296-9896 or toll free 1-800-657-3550;

Senate Information (voice) at (651) 296-0504 or toll free 1-888-234-1112 or (TTY) at (651) 296-0250 or toll free 1-888-234-1116

If you would like to receive Senate and House committee schedules via e-mail, both bodies have schedule listservs available.

To subscribe to the Senate listserv, go to:
<http://www.senate.mn/schedule/subscribe.php>

To receive the House schedule, go to:
<http://www.house.mn/maillist/maillinglist.asp>

 Minnesota Senate

Legislative Materials Available to The Public from the

Senate Information Office
231 Capitol

or

House Public Information Services Office
175 State Office Building

July 2009